

Jewish-Christian Relations

Insights and Issues in the ongoing Jewish-Christian Dialogue

On October 4, 2008CE, the new Center for the Study of Jewish-Christian-Muslim Relations has been established to: - Promote understanding and reverence for the richness of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, our history together, and the imperatives of caring contemporary and ongoing relations; - Act to break down and heal all stereotypes and prejudices directed at members of our communities: antisemitism, anti-Christian animus and Islamophobia; and: Join together to act more effectively for justice and for peace.
