

Jewish-Christian Relations

Insights and Issues in the ongoing Jewish-Christian Dialogue

The Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies trains students, educators, and activists to develop a sophisticated understanding of genocide. Offering the sole doctoral program in Holocaust History and Genocide Studies in conjunction with the History Department, a new doctoral program in Psychology of Genocide in conjunction with the Psychology Department, and a rich undergraduate program, the Center program is interdisciplinary in nature.